In the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky there are blind fish. If you keep pigs in the dark they will go blind, too. It is reported that a blind pig has been located on the railroad land adjoining Waldport.

If any of the fair ones at Waldport want to call up their friends who are in Toledo this week all they have to do is to ring up and have George hunt up their party. He hates to leave the office for any length of time but short calls will be promptly answered.

David Calvert fell from a low bluff on the ocean beach near the bath house and brook his right arm above the elbow. J. W. Weidman, who was driving along at the time, brought the young man back to Waldport where medical attention was given.

About noon last Wednesday the old Waldport hotel building caught fire from a defective flue and burned to the ground. The building was occupied as a residence by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyler. The fire extinguishers which were purchased some time ago proved useless for they had not been charged. By great effort the fire was prevented from spreading although the Waldport Lumber company's mill and the saw dust pile caught fire a number of times. There was no insurance on the building.
